

Greetings from BTSR,

Our second day was full of more fun and adventure.

This is our view of the valley coming down from our campsite. We have the most remote site in the camp, so it feels very rustic.

Here are the boys staged to go down to camp for dinner. What a great looking bunch!

Here are the leaders hard at work....

in front of the fan, as it was 100 degrees today.

The boys worked on crafts,

and Scout skills (tying a monkey fist knot),

and had fun.

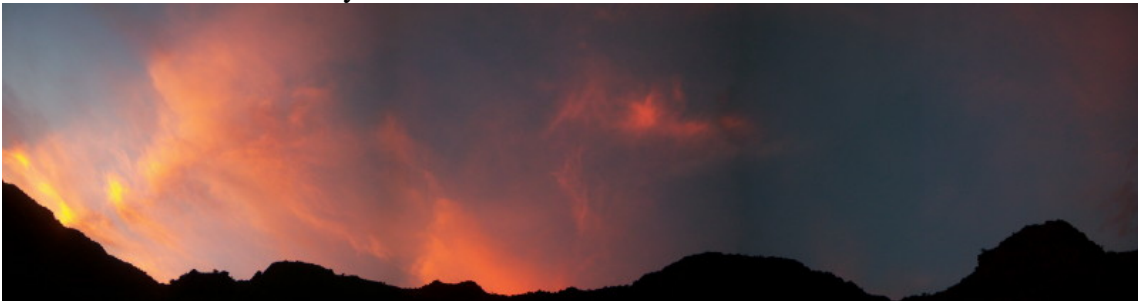

There are lots of interesting critters to see at camp. Ask you son about some of the animals we saw in our camp site.

Here is the entire camp lined up for flag ceremony. I believe there are about 400+ Scouts at camp this week.

It was another beautiful day at B TSR.

All the best from B TSR.

Frank
